DR. SWAYNE, DEAR SIR:

feel myself duty bound to give a certificate of the cure of one of the most aggravated cases of diseased Lungs, which has ever been placed upon record. It was that of Valentine Chapman, who was sent to this Institution under the care of a very respectable Physician, who, after a long and fauthful attendance gave him out as beyond the reach of the healing art. Having heard of the astonishing effects of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry in curing Coughs, Colds, Consumption, Difficulty of Breathing, pairs and soreness of the Breast, Asthma, Whooping caugh, Whooping cough, Bronchitis, and all

and all diseases of the Breast and Lungs, I-concluded to get a bottle at my own-expense, which gave some relief; being encouraged from that circumstance, I followed it up until a perfect cure was performed, and the man returned to his daily labors.

THE PICTORIAL HISTORY OF THE UNITED

WITH NOTICES of other portions of America, by S. G. Goodrich, author of Peter Parley's Tales, for the use of schools. The main purpose of the work is to furnish a full, accurate, and just history of the Western Continent, which may attract and render this subject a common school study throughout the this subject a common school study throughout the land. While, therefore, it is full, in point of matter, it is so arranged as to be easily mastered by the pupil, and without excessive demands upon the attention of the teacher. It will be remarked that the work is the teacher. It will be remarked that the work is largely illustrated with engravings of scenes and in-cidents, together with portraits, plans, and maps, de-signed to convey correct ideas of men and things, and at the same time taking care that the history shall be

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

ADDRESS TO THE PEOPLE OF TELLUNITED STATES.

In looking around upon mankind, the philan tropist cannot but find too much to lament. The var cas filt to which his race are subject, and which are dely and hourly hurrying thousands to the grave, and some, or, in the morning of life, when the hopes of parents an inclends seemed budding into maturity, are sufficient to traken the liveliest sympathies of these whose hearts and callous to every sympathetic feeling. When the grave in the consequence of these whose hearts and the consequence of those with whom he has been in the holding sweet intercourse, perhaps of his own officer ready to go out, how does his lenging desires increase that the mind of man, omnipotent almost as it is, could devise some means, by which, under Providence, the consequences of these rills might be stayed; his better nature becomes excited, and he is stimulated to his task in view of the mighty results which may flow from his toils. Thus we see the market crowded with nostrums whose virtues, if the half of which were true, would cause Death itself to die and man become immortal.

In presenting the Panacea of the Dandelton and To-Maro to the public, we would say that we do not claim for it, that shall be a specific for all the diseases to which the human frame is subject, but for all for which it is recommended. It has for its recommendation the sanction of the experience of the most distinguished and enlightened physicians on the globe.

The proprietors deem it unnecessary to state the cost to which they have been at, or care which has been taken to select, in the first place, the REST articles, and then devise the means by which their whole strength may be given to the public. They ask for it only that meed of attention to which the sick and suffering in the committy may deem it entitled. They are willing that its healing properties should be its only recommendation, and that the relief and heads the whole strength may be given to the public daseased after its use should proclaim its virtue and that the relief and nearth which is sure a coine with suffering and diseased after its use should proclaim its virtues; they intend, and have made, such arrangements that it shall have an extensive sale, and that they may receive a share of its healing benefits. The Panacea is composed, as all must be aware who know snything of the DANDELION, TOMATO, and SARSAPARILLA. composed, as all must be aware who know snything of the DANDELION, TOMATO, and SARSAPARILA, its principal ingredients, from the most innocent, as well as the most effectual plants in the vegetable kingdom.—There is scarcely an individual who is not well acquainted with the efficacy of the DANDELION, TOMATO, and SARSAPARILLA, and who do not know that in those diseases in which a complete and radical change in the composition of the blood, in the secretions of the Liver, and in the formation of all the solid parts of the body are regarded, that there are no remedies which will for a moment compare with them; in fact, in all those regions in which liver diseases are prevalent, or where, from the nature of the climate, any impurities of the blood exists, the Dandelion grows in great quantities, and is eagerly sought after. It seems from the great abundance of the Dandelion in all the regions where such diseases or any that flow from them exists, that it was the design of the Creator that, where the malady was found, the remedy also might be obtained. They are therefore offered to the public with full confidence for the relief of those diseases for which the articles themselves are so often recommended by all our first physicians.

the science of medicine has yet discovered. We called at the store of these gentlemen yesterday and hud the pleasure of perusing letters, some of which were from Physicians of the highest respectability, and others from gentlemen of undoubted integrity, all speaking in the highest terms of the good effects of the medicine. They also hold in their possession, innumerable certificates from persons, some with whom we are acquainted, and in whose word we can place the fullest confidence of the wonderful cures performed by its use; such as Asthma.
Erysipelas, Dyspepsia, Salt Rheum, Chronic Diseases, Rheumatism, Scrofula, and for all impurities of the blood, and from our own knowledge and confidence in the gentlemen who prepare the medicine and the trial we have had of its virtues, we have no hesitation in recommending it themen who prepare the the state of the theorem and of its virtues, we have no hesitation in recommending it as one of the best alteratives and purifiers of the blood now before the public. For anything in the apothecary line, we would recommend the store of these gentlemen, 325 Washington street, as inferior to none in this city; their high moral worth and strict integrity being sufficient guarantees. high moral worth and strict integrity being sufficient gua-ranty to the public against any attempt at imposition." In copying the above from the Mail, we are happy in being abis to endorse every word of it, having tried the Dandelion and Tomato Panacea ourselves with the hap-piest effects. The proprietors are really deserving of patronage, and we are sure that success will crown their efforts.
